

Table of Contents

About the Authors .....	iii
Foreword .....	ix

PART 1: OVERVIEW—HISTORICAL AND EMPIRICAL FRAMEWORK OF BATTERER INTERVENTION PROGRAMS

Chapter 1: Changing Our Visions of Intervention—The Evolution of Programs for Physically Abusive Men

The Origins of Batterer Intervention Programs .....	1-2
Domestic Violence Becomes a National Issue .....	1-3
The Problem With Earlier Marriage Counseling Attempts .....	1-4
First Wave Batterer Intervention Programs .....	1-5
Redefining Battering .....	1-6
Focus on Accountability .....	1-6
Contact With Spouses .....	1-7
Special Concerns .....	1-7
Significant Breakthroughs .....	1-8
Limitations .....	1-8
Second Wave Batterer Intervention Programs .....	1-9
Reframing “Accountability” as a Criminal Justice Issue .....	1-10
Educational Curriculum .....	1-10
The Duluth Model Curriculum .....	1-11
Self-Reflective, Critical Dialogue—The Work of Paulo Freire .....	1-11
Adapting Freire’s Method to the Batterer Intervention Process .....	1-13
A Non-Confrontational Atmosphere .....	1-13
An Ideal of Equality .....	1-14
State and Local Standards .....	1-15
Problems With Coordinated Community Response Efforts .....	1-15
Unwanted Monopoly of DAIP .....	1-16
Variance in Programs Claiming to Follow DAIP .....	1-16
Lack of Coordination Between Policy and Practices .....	1-16
An Incident-Driven Criminal Justice System .....	1-17
Restricted Theoretical and Strategic Visions .....	1-19
Institutional Support for Male Supremacy .....	1-19
Unintended Long-Term Effects .....	1-20
Third Wave Batterer Intervention Programs .....	1-21
Supporting Men’s Capacity to Choose Nonviolence .....	1-22

An Array of Approaches .....	1-22
Guaranteeing Victim Safety .....	1-23
New Routes to the Future .....	1-23

Chapter 2: Common Practitioners' Concerns About Abusive Men

Introduction .....	2-2
Understanding Domestic Violence .....	2-2
When Should a Person Be Considered an “Abuser” or “Batterer”?
Can You “Diagnose” Battering? .....	2-2
Is Domestic Violence a Problem Primarily Among the Poor? .....	2-4
Are Men of Color More Violent Against Their Female Partners
Than White European-American Men? .....	2-5
Direct Sense of Self-Entitlement .....	2-5
Indirect Sense of Self-Entitlement .....	2-5
Cultural Assumptions Favoring Domination .....	2-6
Cultural Values Supporting Nonviolence .....	2-6
Isn't It True That Most Men Who Batter Their Female Partners
Were Raised in Violent Homes? .....	2-7
Do Men Who Batter Have Poor Social and Problem-Solving
Skills? .....	2-7
Are Men Who Batter Mentally Disordered? .....	2-7
Does Alcohol and Drug Abuse Lead to Domestic Violence? .....	2-8
Is Domestic Violence Also a Problem in Gay and Bisexual
Relationships? .....	2-8
Assessment Issues .....	2-9
How Can I Tell if He Will Try to Beat Her Again? .....	2-9
What Is the Best Way to Assess Dangerousness in Men Who
Batter? .....	2-9
When Should Psychological Evaluations of Abusive Men Be
Used? .....	2-10
Forensic Model Recommended .....	2-11
Appropriate Circumstances .....	2-11
Interventions With Abusive Men .....	2-12
Do Different Types of Men Who Batter Require Different
Interventions or Treatments? .....	2-12
What Is the Best Treatment for Abusive Men? .....	2-12
Is Couples Counseling an Effective and Safe Way to Work With
Men Who Batter? .....	2-13
Potential Further Harm to Victims .....	2-14
Conditions for Counseling .....	2-14
Effectiveness .....	2-15

Under What Conditions Is Psychotherapy an Appropriate Intervention for Abusive Men? . . . . .	2-15
Do Abusive Men Stop the Use of Violent Behavior and Change the Way They Relate to Their Partners? . . . . .	2-17

Chapter 3: Evaluating the Efficacy of Interventions With Men Who Batter

Introduction . . . . .	3-1
Legal Sanctions Against Men Who Batter . . . . .	3-2
Court Protection Orders as a Deterrent . . . . .	3-2
Arrest as a Deterrent . . . . .	3-4
Quasi-Experimental Arrest Studies . . . . .	3-4
Domestic Violence Arrest Experiments . . . . .	3-4
Significance for Victims of Domestic Violence . . . . .	3-6
Effect of Employment and Marital Status . . . . .	3-7
Batterer Intervention Programs . . . . .	3-8
Evaluations of BIPs . . . . .	3-10
Individual Outcome Studies . . . . .	3-10
Quasi-Experimental Studies . . . . .	3-11
BIP Experiments . . . . .	3-13
Coordinated Community Responses . . . . .	3-13
Synthesis and Conclusion . . . . .	3-16

PART 2—PRO-FEMINIST PERSPECTIVES

Chapter 4: Emerge—A Group Education Model for Abusers

History . . . . .	4-2
The Emerge Philosophy . . . . .	4-3
Challenging Destructive Belief Systems . . . . .	4-4
Fostering Internal Motivation . . . . .	4-4
The Program—Approach, Procedures, and Curriculum . . . . .	4-5
Staffing . . . . .	4-6
Intake and Assessment Procedures . . . . .	4-6
Emphasis on Accountability . . . . .	4-7
First Stage Groups . . . . .	4-8
Communication With Courts and Child Protective Agencies . . . . .	4-9
Initial Report . . . . .	4-9
Monthly Reports . . . . .	4-9
Contact With Victims . . . . .	4-10
Initial Contact . . . . .	4-10

Follow-Up Contact .....	4-10
Benefits to Partners .....	4-10
Second Stage Groups .....	4-11
Check-Ins .....	4-12
Individual Turns .....	4-13
Relationship History .....	4-13
Goal Setting .....	4-13
Role Plays .....	4-14
Educational Curriculum .....	4-14
Sample “Accountability” Exercise .....	4-15
Instruction and Feedback .....	4-17
Self-Evaluations .....	4-19
Conditions for Program Completion .....	4-19
Developing Cultural Competence .....	4-20
Multiple Perspectives .....	4-21
Historical Attitudes .....	4-21
Collaboration and Contact With Battered Women’s Programs .....	4-22
Conclusion .....	4-23

Chapter 5: A Community Activist Response to Intimate Partner Violence

The Politics of Domestic Violence .....	5-2
Violence Is a Choice .....	5-2
The Control and Coercion Theory of Men’s Violence .....	5-3
The Politics of Men’s Right to Women .....	5-4
“Violence for a Cause Is Not Violence” .....	5-4
The Unnoticed Crime .....	5-5
The Birth of Manalive .....	5-6
The Manalive Program .....	5-7
Part I: Individual Advocacy .....	5-7
Stage 1: Stop My Violence .....	5-7
Stage 2: “Self” Awareness .....	5-8
Stage 3: Self-Fulfillment .....	5-8
Part II: The Community Advocacy Program .....	5-8
Agency and Community Collaborations .....	5-10
Adult Probation Department and the Courts .....	5-11
Family Intervention .....	5-11
In-Jail Restorative Justice .....	5-12
A Compliance-Affirming, Man-Affirming Program .....	5-13
The Manalive Curriculum .....	5-14
Peer Reeducation .....	5-14

The Class Agenda . . . . .	5-14
Senior Advocates/Facilitators . . . . .	5-15
The Class Focus . . . . .	5-17
Check-Ins . . . . .	5-18
Feedback/Disclosure . . . . .	5-19
Administration: Class Fees, Attendance, Progress Reports . . . . .	5-21
The Aggression Cycle Exercise . . . . .	5-22
The Weapon of Choice . . . . .	5-22
The Moment of Fatal Peril . . . . .	5-23
The Story . . . . .	5-27
Analyzing the Story . . . . .	5-28
Who Is the Hitman? . . . . .	5-30
Training for the Roles . . . . .	5-31
The Glimmer of Freedom and Intimacy . . . . .	5-32
Closure: The Eight Change Agreements . . . . .	5-32
New Men's Check-In . . . . .	5-34
Question Time: Working by Agreement . . . . .	5-34
The Bounce . . . . .	5-37
The Assertion Cycle Exercise—Learning to Be Intimate . . . . .	5-38
The Unfamiliar Self . . . . .	5-39
Learning to Notice . . . . .	5-41
Learning to Recognize . . . . .	5-43
Learning to Acknowledge . . . . .	5-43
The Function of Emotions . . . . .	5-44
The Assertion Translation . . . . .	5-45
The Fulfillment Plan . . . . .	5-45
The Hardest Part . . . . .	5-45
Coming Full Circle . . . . .	5-46
The Achievement of Part I . . . . .	5-47
The Community Advocacy Program . . . . .	5-47
A Fulfillment Plan for the Community . . . . .	5-47
Myth No.1—The Violence Will Not Stop . . . . .	5-48
Myth No.2—Batterers Are Incurable and Untreatable . . . . .	5-48
Violent Men Need Our Help to Stop Their Violence . . . . .	5-48
A Model for Change in Intervention Strategy . . . . .	5-49
A Crisis in Confidence . . . . .	5-50
On the Focus: Stop the Violence . . . . .	5-51
 Chapter 6: The Duluth Domestic Abuse Intervention Project
No Safe Place on Earth . . . . .	6-2
The Origins of the Duluth Community Intervention Model . . . . .	6-3

Focusing on the Legal System . . . . . 6-3

Political Encounters—“Private” vs. Public Safety . . . . . 6-4

The Legal Right to Protection . . . . . 6-5

Processing Women’s Experiences as “Cases” . . . . . 6-5

An Interagency Focus . . . . . 6-7

Losing Individual Discretionary Privileges . . . . . 6-7

Steps Toward a Program Curriculum . . . . . 6-8

The Duluth Curriculum . . . . . 6-9

    Assigning Batterers to Groups; Intake Session . . . . . 6-9

    The Group Orientation Session . . . . . 6-10

        The Primary Goal . . . . . 6-10

        New Interagency Standards . . . . . 6-13

        Analyzing the Violence . . . . . 6-13

    Answering Our Critics . . . . . 6-14

Translating the Freire Curriculum—A Conversation With
 Luis Aravena . . . . . 6-15

    Building Educational Themes . . . . . 6-15

    Using the VideoVignettes . . . . . 6-17

    Using Dialogue to Develop Critical Thinking . . . . . 6-20

    Using the Control Log—Defining Actions and Intentions . . . . . 6-22

    Using Actions as Tools on the Control Log . . . . . 6-24

    Dissecting Intentions . . . . . 6-28

    Belief Systems . . . . . 6-34

    Challenging Beliefs With Critical Reflection . . . . . 6-38

    Minimization and Blaming . . . . . 6-41

    Effects of the Abuse on Partner and Others . . . . . 6-42

    Past Use of Violence . . . . . 6-43

    Alternative Behaviors . . . . . 6-44

    Summary . . . . . 6-45

Conclusion . . . . . 6-46

PART 3—SOCIAL-PSYCHOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES

Chapter 7: The Men’s Group Program—A Community-Based, Cognitive-Behavioral, Pro-Feminist Intervention Program

Introduction . . . . . 7-3

History of the Men’s Group Program . . . . . 7-3

Program Philosophy . . . . . 7-3

    Violence Is Wrong . . . . . 7-4

    Abusive Violence Has a Function . . . . . 7-4

    Sociopolitical Factors Support Violence Against Women . . . . . 7-5

Violence Gives Control in the Relationship	7-5
Responsibility for Self-Control Lies With the
Perpetrator	7-6
Domestic Violence Is Learned Behavior	7-6
Partner Violence Is Costly	7-6
Putting It Together: Who Is Responsible for What?	7-7
Accountability in Perpetrator Treatment	7-8
The Cognitive-Behavioral Theory of Therapy	7-8
Cognitive and Appraisal Processes and Battering	7-8
Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy Is Collaborative	7-10
Clinical Assessment	7-11
Initial Intake/History Components	7-12
Prior Mental Health History	7-12
Current Pattern of Alcohol and Drug Use	7-12
Educational and Occupational Attainment	7-12
History of Military Service	7-13
Past Medical History	7-13
Isolation and Social Support	7-13
Family History	7-13
Violence History	7-13
Criminal Arrest and Adjudication History	7-13
History of Victimization	7-14
Perpetration History	7-14
History of Present Relationship	7-14
Relationship Violence Assessment	7-14
Weapons and Lethality	7-15
Treatment of Children	7-15
Safety and Control Planning	7-16
Psychometric Evaluation	7-16
Independent Partner Collateral Assessment	7-17
Feedback and Treatment Planning	7-17
Program Orientation	7-18
References to Partners and Others	7-19
Homework	7-20
Reports of New Violence	7-20
Termination From Treatment	7-20
Program Content	7-21
Men Who Deny Any Violence	7-21
Clinical Intervention and Treatment	7-22
Program Format	7-23
Funding	7-24
Intervention and Treatment Process	7-24

Arousal Management . . . . .	7-25
Thought Switching . . . . .	7-27
Covert Name-Calling . . . . .	7-29
Arousal Phases . . . . .	7-29
Responsible Assertive Behavior Training . . . . .	7-31
Dispelling Myths . . . . .	7-32
Learning to Listen . . . . .	7-33
Cognitive Component . . . . .	7-33
Assertive Defenses . . . . .	7-33
Assertive Refusals/Requests . . . . .	7-34
Empathy and Expression of Feeling . . . . .	7-35
Positive Feedback . . . . .	7-35
Negative Feedback . . . . .	7-35
Coordination With Community Efforts to End Partner Violence . . . . .	7-38
Local Involvement . . . . .	7-38
Statewide Involvement . . . . .	7-39
Treatment Outcome . . . . .	7-40

Chapter 8: The AMEND Model

Mission and Philosophy . . . . .	8-2
Core Beliefs . . . . .	8-2
Etiology of Battering . . . . .	8-3
Psychological Processes . . . . .	8-4
Treatment Model—Values and Directive Challenge . . . . .	8-5
The Program . . . . .	8-6
Intake . . . . .	8-6
Case Staffing and Group Assignments . . . . .	8-9
Colorado Standards . . . . .	8-10
Successful Completion . . . . .	8-10
Intervention Process and Techniques . . . . .	8-11
Accountability . . . . .	8-13
Specific Skill Development . . . . .	8-13
Individual Sessions . . . . .	8-13
Couples Counseling . . . . .	8-14
Counseling Sessions . . . . .	8-14
Couples Meetings . . . . .	8-15
Parenting Groups . . . . .	8-15
Relationship With Criminal Justice System, Advocacy Organizations, and Community . . . . .	8-17
Victim Services Network . . . . .	8-18

Ties With Probation Personnel . . . . .	8-18
Community Work . . . . .	8-18
AMEND Training Team and Seminars . . . . .	8-19
Diversity . . . . .	8-19
Victim Protection Services . . . . .	8-20
Confidentiality . . . . .	8-20
Contact With Victims . . . . .	8-21
Outcome Evaluation . . . . .	8-21
Internal Evaluation . . . . .	8-21
External Evaluation . . . . .	8-22

Chapter 9: Treating Attachment Abuse—The Compassion Workshop

Compassionate Self-Building . . . . .	9-1
The Roots of the Compassion Workshop . . . . .	9-2
Early Concepts . . . . .	9-2
Hurting the Ones We Love . . . . .	9-3
Theories of Attachment vs. Individuation . . . . .	9-3
The Mirror of Attachment . . . . .	9-4
The Internal Alarm: An Intolerable Self . . . . .	9-5
Empowerment and Self-Regulation . . . . .	9-5
First Encounter With the Workshop . . . . .	9-6
Core Hurts—Labeling the Motivation to Abuse . . . . .	9-7
Core Value, The New Response to Core Hurts . . . . .	9-8
HEALS™—Hyde Remembering What Jekyll Learned . . . . .	9-8
Who Changes Whom—Ethical Imperatives in Treating Abusers . . . . .	9-10
Workshop Structure and Techniques . . . . .	9-11
Engaging Abusers . . . . .	9-12
Money-Back Guarantee and Lifetime Membership . . . . .	9-12
Homework . . . . .	9-13
Why Twelve Weeks? . . . . .	9-14
Victims in Treatment . . . . .	9-15
Pilot Study and Ongoing Evaluation . . . . .	9-15
Final Note . . . . .	9-15

PART 4—MULTICULTURAL PERSPECTIVES

Chapter 10: The Cultural Context Model

An Expanded Paradigm of Family and Community . . . . .	10-2
Toward a Social Justice Model of Mental Health . . . . .	10-3
Battering Is Not a Separate Issue . . . . .	10-4

Teamwork Approach and Funding . . . . .	10-4
Philosophic Concepts . . . . .	10-5
Intake and Socioeducation Process . . . . .	10-5
Family Genogram . . . . .	10-5
Separation by Gender . . . . .	10-6
Education for Critical Consciousness . . . . .	10-6
Culture vs. Types of Cultural Domination . . . . .	10-8
Cultural Consultants . . . . .	10-9
Locating Oneself in the Hierarchy . . . . .	10-10
No Secrets . . . . .	10-11
Sponsorship . . . . .	10-11
Sponsor Training . . . . .	10-12
Sponsor Meetings . . . . .	10-13
Culture Circles . . . . .	10-13
The Language of the Culture Circle . . . . .	10-13
Active Listening . . . . .	10-14
Accountability . . . . .	10-14
Shifting the Boundaries of Family Life . . . . .	10-14
The Therapist's Expanded Role . . . . .	10-15
Case Illustrations . . . . .	10-16
The Cultural Context Model and Twelve-Step Programs . . . . .	10-16
The Problem With Privacy . . . . .	10-16
The Problem With Exclusivity . . . . .	10-17
Assessing Relationships; Letters of Accountability . . . . .	10-18
Men Articulate Women's Experiences . . . . .	10-19
Holding Others Accountable for Misuses of Power . . . . .	10-21
Men Challenge Other Men . . . . .	10-23
Research Outcomes . . . . .	10-24
Summary and Conclusion . . . . .	10-24
Where the Problem Is Located . . . . .	10-25
Promoting Nonviolence in All Forms . . . . .	10-26

Chapter 11: A Program for Immigrant Latino Men Who Batter Within the Context of a Comprehensive Family Intervention

Comprehensive Intervention . . . . .	11-2
Program Philosophy . . . . .	11-2
Concientización —Critical Consciousness Model . . . . .	11-3
Imbalance of Power in Gender Relations . . . . .	11-4
Communal Responsibility . . . . .	11-5
Program Approach . . . . .	11-6
Women's Reality as Context . . . . .	11-6

Women Advocates . . . . .	11-6
Women's Feedback . . . . .	11-7
Culture as Context . . . . .	11-7
Centrality of Family . . . . .	11-8
Machismo . . . . .	11-8
Respeto (Respect) . . . . .	11-9
Oral Learning Tradition . . . . .	11-9
Working With the Perpetrators of Violence . . . . .	11-10
Initial Interview and Evaluation . . . . .	11-10
Dual-Level Mediation . . . . .	11-11
Community-Based Advocacy . . . . .	11-11
A Six-Month Program . . . . .	11-13
Funding . . . . .	11-13
Participants' Contract . . . . .	11-14
The Intervention Process . . . . .	11-14
First-Level Groups—Goals and Process . . . . .	11-14
Sample First-Level Intervention . . . . .	11-15
Second-Level Groups—Goals and Process . . . . .	11-18
Sample Intervention Dialogue . . . . .	11-19
Symbolic Objects . . . . .	11-23
Substance-Abuse Group . . . . .	11-23
Relationship With Criminal Justice System and Advocacy Organizations . . . . .	11-24
State and County Domestic Violence Task Forces . . . . .	11-24
City and County Courts . . . . .	11-25
Shelters and Advocacy Organizations . . . . .	11-25
Diversity . . . . .	11-26
Challenges . . . . .	11-27
Concurrent Services for Family Members . . . . .	11-27
Cooperation Among Providers . . . . .	11-28
An Egalitarian Model . . . . .	11-28
Outcome Evaluation . . . . .	11-29
 Chapter 12: CECEVIM—Stopping Male Violence in the Latino Home
Introduction . . . . .	12-2
CECEVIM's History . . . . .	12-2
CECEVIM's Theoretical Foundations . . . . .	12-3
Explanatory Theory . . . . .	12-3
Feminist Gender Analysis . . . . .	12-3
Latino-American Feminism . . . . .	12-4
Masculinities . . . . .	12-5
Latino Masculinities . . . . .	12-6

Subjectivity and Self Concept . . . . .	12-7
Ecological Perspective . . . . .	12-8
CECEVIM's Ecological Base: Our Five "Spaces" . . . . .	12-9
Physical Space . . . . .	12-9
Intellectual Space . . . . .	12-9
Emotional Space . . . . .	12-9
Social Space . . . . .	12-10
Cultural Space . . . . .	12-10
Spaces Abused . . . . .	12-11
Ancient Spiritual Philosophy . . . . .	12-11
Program Replicability . . . . .	12-12
Elements for Deconstruction and Reconstruction . . . . .	12-13
A Centered Focus . . . . .	12-13
Experiential Materials and Processes . . . . .	12-14
No Facilitator Control Tactics . . . . .	12-14
The Group as an Agent of Change and Healing . . . . .	12-15
Accountability and Motivation to Stop Violence . . . . .	12-16
Program Structure and Intervention Strategies . . . . .	12-17
First Phase: Learning Why Men Are Violent . . . . .	12-18
Class Boundaries . . . . .	12-20
Fees . . . . .	12-20
Substance Abuse and Weapons . . . . .	12-21
Collusion . . . . .	12-21
Confidentiality . . . . .	12-21
Testimony of a Violent Act in Class . . . . .	12-21
Second Phase: Focus on Internal Spaces . . . . .	12-23
Third Phase: Sharing Spaces . . . . .	12-25
Fourth Phase: Growth and Exploration . . . . .	12-26
Facilitators' Training . . . . .	12-27
Avoiding Collusion . . . . .	12-27
The Wisdom of the Elders . . . . .	12-28
Conclusion . . . . .	12-28

Chapter 13: The Batterer Education Program for Incarcerated African-American Men, 1997–2000

Program History and Philosophy . . . . .	13-2
The Original Life Skills Program . . . . .	13-2
Batterer Education Component . . . . .	13-3
Male Privilege . . . . .	13-3
Discrimination . . . . .	13-4
Education . . . . .	13-4

The Batterer Education Program Approach . . . . .	13-4
Relationship With Perpetrators of Violence . . . . .	13-4
Admission . . . . .	13-5
Staffing . . . . .	13-6
Focus on Education . . . . .	13-7
Expectations and Goals for Participants . . . . .	13-7
Intervention Process and Special Techniques . . . . .	13-9
Check-Ins . . . . .	13-10
First Unit—Recognizing the Cycle of Violence . . . . .	13-10
Second Unit—Breaking Down and Confronting Violence . . . . .	13-11
Third Unit—Living Violence-Free . . . . .	13-12
Closure Rituals . . . . .	13-13
Homework . . . . .	13-13
Relationship With Criminal Justice System and Domestic Violence Advocacy Organizations . . . . .	13-14
Relationship With Victims of Violence . . . . .	13-14
Diversity . . . . .	13-14
Road Blocks . . . . .	13-15
Resistance and False Participation . . . . .	13-15
Education and Drawing on Religious Sources of Strength . . . . .	13-15
Facilitator Collusion . . . . .	13-16
Other Obstacles . . . . .	13-16
Outcome Evaluation . . . . .	13-16
Appendix 1: Colorado State Standards for Treatment With Court-     Ordered Domestic Violence Offenders . . . . .	A-1
Appendix 2: Bibliography . . . . .	A-39
Index . . . . .	I-1